Semaphore

3 1

Just a pleasant short stroll to the coastal strip and water's edge, rubbing shoulders with Semaphore and Military Roads, easy transport options, and every leisure ritual the foreshore presents.

This spacious art deco three-bedroom, one bathroom apartment combines character, including original timber flooring, with a contemporary update reflecting its prized position along Semaphore Road.

Semaphore Road, one of Adelaide's widest boulevards, has developed a style all of its own, with contemporary cafes in century old buildings rubbing shoulders with an array of shops, restaurants, and traditional pubs. It is also home to an historic library and the oldest purpose-built cinema in Adelaide. The 1920's Palais bathing pavilion on the foreshore is now the Semaphore Palais hotel.
